

Working Group 2 Standard II Ethics and Integrity
Interim Report #2

Standard II- Ethics and Integrity

Ethics and integrity are central, indispensable, and defining hallmarks of effective higher education institutions. In all activities, whether internal or external, an institution must be faithful to its mission, honor its contracts and commitments, adhere to its policies, and represent itself truthfully.

Criteria

An accredited institution possesses and demonstrates the following attributes or activities:

1. a commitment to academic freedom, intellectual freedom, freedom of expression, and respect for intellectual property, freedom of exs-0.002 Tc 0.001 Tw T* [(nte)-TT1ocp (t)8544 ana

2. a climate that fosters respect among students, faculty, staff, and administration from a range of diverse backgrounds, ideas, and perspectives;

Evidence Programmatic Accreditation Document, Graduation Data Document, Assessment Handbook, Individual academic program webpage (ex. PA, AT),

- x Do we have it? The documents contain information adequate demonstration of institution-wide assessment, graduation and retention rates, and certification and licensure or licensing board pass rates.
- x Do we use it? Graduation and retention data are shared internally and publicly, institutional wide assessment is available on the assessment and planning webpage as is the certification/licensure list.
- x Does it work? These documents adequately provide evidence that offers accurate and comprehensive information regarding information on institutionwide assessments, graduation, retention, certification and licensure. The workgroup recommends having a central place to list accredited program board pass rates. Whether for institutional and/or public use, it is challenging to find information on campuswide assessment. Individual programs publicize licensure board pass rates on their webpages (e.g., Physician Assistant, Athletic Training), but there is no central location.
